News & Prayer Concerns

Prayers Needed

Pray for Belle Smith, who fell recently and is now in an assisted living center, Eskaton Manzanita, at 5318 Manzanita Ave., Carmichael, 95608. She enjoys visits and receiving cards, so let's do our part to encourage her.

Continue prayers for Carly Cain, Nita Sellgren (Sharron Wade's mother), Ben Thorp, Sharon Jones, Duane Lowe, Wes Shamblin's grandmother, Doris Phillips, Becky Woolpert, Kathy & Hank Wilson, Jamie Cole, and the many who are fighting cancer: Monica Fulton (Dave's mother), Brady Rembleski's grandfather, Justin Ivie's dad, Tom Royston, Ken McClelland, Margaret Everett (San Jose), Cheryl Wilson, Laurieann Reagan and Oliver Sasse. Also pray for those who are expecting: Carly Posey, Janelle Thorp, Carrie Sadowy and Angie Cain.

Continue prayers for those who are mourning the loss of loved ones.

Rob Baumgarten has secured a job with the El Dorado Sheriff's Dept. That's great news for a lot of reasons, but for us, it means his family will be working and worshipping with us for the foreseeable future. We're very happy about that.

Out of Town

Becky Woolpert is in Utah visiting Dawn. Roy and Sharon Bridge are in Virginia visiting Eric and family.

Christians Serving in Iraq

Pray for Jeremy Allen, Philip Cain, Steve Ries, Titus Cain.

Please sign up if you are interested in that class.

Calendar

On the inside pages of the View you'll find a calendar listing events scheduled for the next year, starting this month. We will be publishing a quarterly calendar in each issue of the View, starting next week. We wanted to put the whole year before you, though, so you can see what we have scheduled and so you can start planning. There will be additions and changes as we firm up some dates. We only include events that the church here is sponsoring in some way, overseen by the elders. We would encourage you to keep the calendars and write in other activities that offer you involvement opportunities (e.g., the Ladies Workshop meetings).

Welcome!

We're pleased to announce that Jay Schreiber has identified with us. We are looking forward to working with him. He is a good Bible student and has several talents to offer. His address is:

Thank you

I cannot express the level of appreciation I feel for those of you who have expressed your sympathy to me through comments, cards, e-mails and call. I have been deeply touched by your kindness.

Rain

A little girl had been shopping with her Granddaddy in Wal-Mart. She must have been 6 years old, this beautiful blonde hair, an image of innocence. It was pouring outside. The kind of rain that gushes over the top of rain gutters, so much in a hurry to hit the earth it has no time to flow down the spout. We all stood there under the awning and just inside the door of the Wal-Mart.

We waited, some patiently, others irritated because nature messed up their hurried day. I am always mesmerized by rainfall. I got lost in the sound and sight of the heavens washing away the dirt and dust of the world. Memories of running, splashing so carefree as a child come pouring in as a welcome reprieve from the worries of my day.

The little voice was so sweet as it broke the hypnotic trance we were all caught in.

“Granddaddy, let’s run through the rain,” she said

“What?” Granddaddy asked.

“Let’s run through the rain!” She repeated.

“No, honey. We’ll wait until it slows down a bit,” Granddaddy replied. This young child waited about another minute and repeated: “Granddaddy, let’s run through the rain,”

“We’ll get soaked if we do,” Granddaddy said.

“No, we won’t, Granddaddy. That’s not what you said this morning,” the young girl said as she tugged at her Granddaddy’s arm.

“This morning? When did I say we could run through the rain and not get wet?”

“Don’t you remember? When you were talking to Grandmamma about her cancer, you said, ‘If God can get us through this, he can get us through anything!’”

The entire crowd stopped dead silent. You couldn’t hear anything but the rain. We all stood silently. No one came or left in the next few minutes.

Granddaddy paused and thought for a moment about what he would say. Now some would laugh it off and scold him for being silly. Some might even ignore what was said. But this was an important moment in a young child’s life; a time when innocent trust can be nurtured so that it will bloom into faith.

“Honey, you are absolutely right. Let’s run through the rain! If GOD let’s us get wet, well maybe we just needed washing,” Granddaddy said.

Then off they ran. We all stood watching, smiling and laughing as they darted past the cars and yes, through the puddles. They held their shopping bags over their heads just in case. They got soaked. But they were followed by a few who screamed and laughed like children all the way to their cars. And yes, I did. I ran. I got wet. I needed washing.

Circumstances or people can take away your material possessions, they can take away your money, and they can take away your health. But no one can ever take away our precious memories. So, don’t forget to make time and take the opportunities to make memories everyday. To everything there is a season and a time for every purpose under heaven.

Announcing an activity or event does not necessarily imply that we financially sponsor the event or that the elders specifically endorse every component of that event, since it may not fall under the direct oversight of the elders. The church’s work and the elders’ oversight is limited by Scripture. We will not announce events that are primarily social in nature.
