The View contains news and articles of interest to the members of the Folsom Point church of Christ. Announcing an activity or event does not necessarily imply that we financially sponsor the event or that the elders specifically endorse every component of that event, since it may not fall under the direct oversight of the elders. The church's work and the elders' oversight is limited by Scripture. We will not announce events that are primarily social in nature. However, we do want to publicize those activities that provide an opportunity for you to be a more involved and active member of the body.

The Last Time

By Elizabeth Daws Sturns

I didn't know it was the last time
I'd tell my friend goodbye.
We talked and laughed—there was no hint
That soon she was to die.

I didn't know it was the last time
My spouse could speak my name.
I hope he knew I held his hand
Before the angels came.

I won't know when it's the last time
I help a friend in need.
To live each day as though my last
Should really be my creed.

I won't know when it's the last time
I see apple blossoms bloom,
Or watch spring flowers poking through,
Dispelling winter's gloom.

I won't know when it's the last time
I celebrate Jesus' birth,
But what a blessing that He came,
Bringing heaven closer to earth.

When will be the last time
I sing a hymn to Him,
Jesus, Savior, Son of God,
Before Whom all glories dim?

When will be the last time
I bow my head to pray?
Some things we just aren't meant to know.
I think it's best that way!

Perhaps this is the last time
That I shall write a poem.
I know my days are numbered
Till God shall call me home.

I know there'll be a last time
For everything I do—
A simple fact, which must be faced
When the years one's left are few.

I won't know when it's the last time
That on this earth I trod,
But there'll be that joyous first time,
When I shall see my God!
