Change Me

Dear Lord change not Your will in my life,
Or trial and sorrows to be;
Renew my faith and make me strong,
Change not Your will, change me.

Though teardrops fall when trouble comes,
Like storms on a rolling sea;
Let Your beacon guide my ship to port,
Change not the storm, change me.

When Your Holy Word I don't understand
And Your glory I cannot see;
Teach my eyes, give me sight and wisdom,
Change not Your Word, change me.

If the fruit You have given me to eat,
Tastes bitter and sour, I plea;
Let not my will but Yours be done,
Change not the fruit, change me.

If sometimes I murmur and grumble, dear Lord,
When for You the cross I carry;
Keep it firm on my shoulders, but hold my hand,
Change not the cross, change me.

There's a valley that I must cross,
Someday Your face to see;
Lest I forget what power is Yours,
Change not the valley, change me.

Resources for teachers

We have several items available in the resource room to help teachers optimize the classroom experience. There are also some websites that we have subscribed to for additional information. Allison Horak and Christie Posey provided the details below. Please see them if you have any questions.

Resource Room

Cricut (pronounced "cricket"): electric die-cutting machine. Teachers can make letters (for bulletin boards or any purpose) up to 11.5" in height, as well as many other decorative paper objects. Individuals needing help can contact Allison Horak or Valerie Hamilton for information. The Cricut should not leave the Resource Room.

Flannel-graph, aka, Betty Lukin. We have two cabinets full of flannel graph pieces: people, animals and scenery. In between the two cabinets are various boards that can be used to adhere the pieces. In the bottom, deep drawer of each cabinet there are large pieces of flannel that can also be used as background, as well as manuals for usage ideas. Above the cabinets, there is a plastic bin for the return of the flannel pieces. Please place the pieces in the bin and someone will re-file them for you in the correct location. Please return the pieces as soon as you are done using them.

A Beka Cards: Large color visual cards. We have three full sets of these cards. Currently, Whitney Schrimsher has the cards at her home. Please see Whitney for cards that suit your needs. Soon, there will be a custom organizer in the Resource Room that will house the cards. For the time being, please return the cards to Whitney when you are done using them.

Please note: A Beka cards should NOT be used on the wall of your classroom. Please do not use tape, tacks, putty, or anything else to put the cards on the walls of your classroom. Some alternative ideas include using an easel or using magnets on the whiteboard to display the cards.

Bible Preaching March 29th to April 3rd 2009

Bob Owen
Tampa, Florida

Brother Owen will be presenting an excellent series of lessons from Hebrews 2:1-4. He will help us focus on being steadfast in our faith, covering topics such as the danger of falling away, how God punishes sin and the great salvation we enjoy in Christ. Brother Owen is a gifted speaker with years of experience to share. Make plans to be here for each meeting.
