

Daily View

“But exhort one another every day, as long as it is called ‘today’” Hebrews 3:13

March 23, 2020

Do you miss meeting with all the saints as much as I do?

Here's an Rx from the Psalms that might help:

Psalm 84

How lovely is your dwelling place,

O Lord of hosts!

My soul longs, yes, faints

for the courts of the Lord;

my heart and flesh sing for joy

to the living God.

Even the sparrow finds a home,

and the swallow a nest for herself,

where she may lay her young,

at your altars, O Lord of hosts,

my King and my God.

Blessed are those who dwell in your house,

ever singing your praise! Selah [1-4]

...For a day in your courts is better than a thousand elsewhere.

I would rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God than dwell in the tents of wickedness.

For the Lord God is a sun and shield;

the Lord bestows favor and honor.

No good thing does he withhold from those who walk uprightly.

O Lord of hosts,

blessed is the one who trusts in you! [10-12]

Today

We only get it once.

Why waste it?

We can spend it in fear, or we can create possibility for the next person.

We can spend it alone, or we can create digital but real connection with someone else.

It only takes a day to make change happen.

The ocean is made up of drops. – Seth Godin

News

Dawn Herrin is having gall bladder surgery on Tuesday.

Please pray for a quick recovery.

We're all shut in, more or less, but Mona Cain and Sara

Clark are quarantined, for another week or so. Keep them in your prayers.

Also pray for and reach out to our widows and others who may be alone in their homes.

The Caronavirus numbers are likely to get much worse this week because more people are being tested.

The numbers of those who die due to the virus will rise. Pray without ceasing for everyone.

We hope and pray that the “curve” will flatten out, a cure is found, deaths are reduced and life gets back to normal very soon.

Meanwhile, stay positive, read the word and spread the word (digitally) and enjoy your family.